

To Whome it may Concern

My Name is Amy Robinson I was the one who lost my 2 kids in the trailer fire on Aug 24, 2009 well I was in the paper on Oct 4, 2009 I would live to set the truth and nothing but the truth. Im doing this for my kids and the family of mine and my boyfriend Cozack Green family.

I knew alot People are wondering what really happend that day I told the police on Sept 30, 2009 that I was not in the house but the thing was I was there but not the bathroom I was in my bed so I am bipolar and I was trying not take meds because of my kids it would make me sleepy I had a very stressful life with a 4 year old and a two year old and a newborn so I did not have alot of sleep I was always running and chasing my daughter and son my daughter Savannah was alot to handle ever since her father passed away so it was hard for me alot so I went to take a nap I was very tired and I thought they were sleeping But I was wrong they said my son started the fire well my son could not even feed himself they went on what my 4 year old said they went by people saying I was not there they all in my life the FBI SLED and NCPD they took pics of my kids at there funeral they questioned my daughter for 4 ~~hours~~ hours and since that has happend my daughter Savannah has alot of problems what I am saying I was treated very unfair you can come and talk to me if you want but im saying is now I'm fighting for my life

I have never been in trouble with law see alot of people can tell you ~~that~~ that I loved my kids but I know that I wish I could have got them but I could not because of the fire If you could please put this in the paper it would help me or you may come see me. See my lawyer is marybeth mulloney I dont know alot about her so im very scared!
Please im trying to prove I was there The police went on what a 4 year old child what a [redacted] said so please help there was more than 10 911 calls and if I was not in the house like they say than I would not know where the fire was But I was there I know I was thank you

Amy Robinson
#1356975
TD the unit