ANNIVERSARY POLICY

ANNIVERSARIES are important to The Post and Courier and its readers. They are published in the Sunday issue of the newspaper following the anniversary.

Announcements for wedding anniversaries 50 years and up are free for the first six inches.

Anniversary forms information must be submitted on forms supplied by our office. Forms may be obtained in person at 134 Columbus Street, Charleston, 24 hours a day and holidays, or 6296 Rivers Avenue, North Charleston, next to Shoneys, Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Or you can request forms by calling The Post and Courier's CELEBRATIONS DEPARTMENT for a wedding packet. You can also access current forms from the Internet at postandcourier.com/weddings. Click on "Add my announcement to your listings."

Anniversary announcements must be received at The Post and Courier by 3 p.m. on the Monday prior to the desired publication date.

Photos should be 5x7 or smaller, no larger than 8x10, black and white or color photo, with a sharp contrast, to be used with the anniversary write-up. Photos can also be emailed to weddings@postandcourier.com in a jpg format and at least 300 dpi. Subject line should include last names of the couple and the date announcement is running. Photos will be returned only if forms are accompanied by a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Otherwise, the photos will be discarded after publication. The Post and Courier is not responsible for lost or damaged photographs.

Anniversary announcements should be typed or printed clearly with black or blue ink. The Post and Courier will not accept responsibility for, and will not run corrections on, information that is illegible or incomplete.

Announcements are published on a pre-pay basis and payment must accompany engagement announcement submissions. We accept cash, check, Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Discover.

If you need further information, please call the CELEBRATIONS Consultants at The Post and Courier: Joanne Chisolm at 937-4828 or Burnetta Smith at 937-4829.
